Professor Colleen E. Medill
Warren R. Wise Professor of Law
University of Nebraska College of Law

Moderator

John D. Blum
Loyola University Chicago School of Law

Rationalizing Health Care Governance: A Case for Revised Federalism

Matthew J. Eickman
Utz, Miller & Eickman LLC

ERISA Fee Litigation: Shining Bright-Line Rules on a Standard Best Left Hazy?

Albert Feuer
Law Offices of Albert Feuer

How the Supreme Court and the DOL May Dispel Myths about the ERISA Matrimonial Provisions and Resolve Conflicts about the Benefit Entitlements That Arise Thereunder

Susan Harthill
Florida Coastal Law School

The Supreme Court (Partially) Fills a Gaping Hole: Cigna Corp. v. Amara Clarifies the Scope of Equitable Relief under ERISA

José M. Jara
SNR Denton

ERISA Prudence and Employer Stock: What’s the Correct Standard of Prudence?

David Pratt
Albany Law School

Summary Plan Descriptions after Amara

Kevin A. Wiggins
Thorp, Reed & Armstrong LLP

ERISA Preemption of Medical Service Provider Claims

The 10th Annual Employee Benefits Symposium qualifies for 6 hours of CLE credit.

Registration: $50 for professionals. Free for members of the John Marshall community.
Please register online at events.jmls.edu/EBSymposium

Registration deadline is Monday, April 9, 2012.
For more information, contact Steve Szydelko at 6szydelko@jmls.edu or 312.427.2737 ext. 313.